

Denton A. Cooley Center Fitness & Recreation

Director: Sara Harman

Locations:
1620 McElderry Street
9th Floor, 615 N. Wolfe Street

Phone Numbers:
410-955-2513
410-502-0842

E-mail: JHUCooleyCenter@aol.com
Website: <http://www.jhucooleycenter.com/>

Services Include:

- Group Exercise
- Personal training
- Wellness Center
- Intramural leagues
- Swimming Pool

Johns Hopkins Federal Credit Union

The mission of The Johns Hopkins Federal Credit Union (JHFCU) is to provide its members with competitive, high-quality financial services, while remaining strong, secure and reliable in its operations.

Phone: 410-955-4500
1-800-JHFCU70 (if calling outside of the Baltimore metro area)

Website: <http://www.jhfcu.org>

Branches:

East Baltimore
2027 E. Monument St.
Baltimore, MD 21287

Homewood
Room 47 Gilman Hall
Charles & 34th Streets
Baltimore, MD 21218

Bayview
5201 Alpha Commons Drive
Baltimore, MD 21224

Services include:

- Loans – Vehicle, Home and Consumer
- Accounts – Savings, Checking, Certificates, IRAs, Money Market, Educational, Holiday, and Savings Bond accounts
- Automated Services – Internet Branch, Account History, Bill Payment, Telebranch 24, ATM/Visa Check Cards, Direct Deposit/Payroll Deduction
- Extras - MAIF Insurance Premiums Financing, Motor Vehicle Certification Program, Auto/Homeowner Insurance, Online Tax Filing Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance, Credit Life and Disability Insurance, Notary Service, Signature Guarantee, American Express Travelers Cheques, Money Matters Newsletter, Discount Privileges

The Johns Hopkins Child Care and Early Learning Center

Location:

98 N. Broadway
Baltimore, MD 21231
(1 1/2 blocks south of Orleans St.)

Hours of Operation:

Monday through Friday,
6:30 a.m. - 6:30 p.m.

<http://www.jhbrihthorizons.org/>

The Johns Hopkins Child Care and Early Learning Center is designed to serve full-time employees (faculty and staff), full-time day students, house staff and fellows of the Johns Hopkins University and the Johns Hopkins Hospital/Health System. All children ages 6 weeks through preschool are welcome for full-time care.

The Maryland Committee for Children also has a good website for locating childcare:

http://www.mdchildcare.org/mdcfc/for_parents/finding.html

Life in Baltimore

Where to Live:

<http://www.jhu.edu/~hds/offcampus>

This is an official off-campus housing website provided by the University. On this site you are able to get a listing of available housing around JHU.

<http://www.livebaltimore.com>

This site is a good site for someone relocating to Baltimore. It answers a lot of the real estate questions one may have about the areas in this city.

<http://baltimore.craigslist.org>

This website is the ultimate information guide for anyone moving to a new city. It is basically online classifieds where you have the choice of defining what type of apartment you are interested in as well as the price and if you desire to have a roommate.

<http://www.sublet.com>

If you are looking for short-term housing this is great site.

<http://www.marylandapartments.com>

This website is best for someone who is familiar with the areas in and around Baltimore. Otherwise, it is a good source for satisfying your apartment search needs.

City Guides

<http://www.citypaper.com>

This website is by far the most comprehensive compilation of events, housing and classifieds specifically geared for present and future Baltimore residents.

<http://www.hellobaltimore.com>

You can find every tidbit about Baltimore and its attractions, jobs, weather, restaurants, real estate etc. If you are new to this area this is a great starting point to exploring Baltimore.

<http://www.baltimore.to/Guide/index.html>

On a budget? Here you may find a listing of restaurants and inexpensive things that one might be able to do in Baltimore.

Things to Do:

<http://www.baltimore.org>

This is a great website that can be used as a source for planning events with friends and family. You can also get maps and information on overnight housing.

<http://www.fellspoint.us/>

Fell's Point is one of the oldest areas in Baltimore. This historic town has a lot of beautiful attractions, stores, restaurants and tours. This site is ideal for someone interested in sightseeing and enjoying all the uniqueness that Baltimore has to offer.

<http://www.bop.org>

All the information that you will need about films, art shows and other events involving the arts, are all listed here by Baltimore's Office of Promotion and the Arts. Check out this website for dates and times of upcoming events.

Baltimore Symphony Orchestra - <http://www.baltimoresymphony.org>

Do you like the symphony? Are you a music lover? The BSO has great concerts showing at really convenient times to spruce up your nightlife. Visit this website for more information on all the concerts BSO has to offer.

Baltimore Museum of Art (BMA) - <http://artbma.org>

Enjoy great food and good art at the BMA and its restaurant, Gertrude's. Take in some live music, performances, tours and talks all for FREE! on the first Thursday of each month.

Walters Art Museum - <http://www.thewalters.org>

This museum contains a diverse range of artwork from all over the world. Be a docent, a volunteer or a member; there are lots of events and programs made available to the public. Don't forget to take advantage of their free admission on the first Thursday of each month!

ArtScape - <http://www.artscape.org>

This is a three-day arts festival held in July every year since 1974. There is usually plenty of food, music, sculptors, paintings, jewelry, and craft persons.

The Maryland Zoo in Baltimore - <http://www.marylandzoo.org/>

Enjoy beautiful wild life and wilderness in Baltimore. This is one of the greatest attractions in Baltimore and is a must see.