

Terrorism Response and Preparedness Within and Around Buildings

March 11, 2004

At the Holiday Inn Columbia

At Corner of U.S. Route 1 and MD Route 175

This Seminar is Co-Sponsored by the Chesapeake Chapter of the American Society of Safety Engineers
And
Johns Hopkins University, Bloomberg School of Public Health – The Center for Public Health Preparedness;
The Education & Research Center; Hopkins Scientists Working to Address Terrorism; and The Institute for Johns Hopkins Nursing.

The sponsors have assembled experts to discuss the nature of the agents of terrorism, the threats these agents may have if used in and around buildings; and engineering and administrative controls that can be used to minimize the risk to building occupants. The seminar will also discuss incident command issues should an event occur, personal protective equipment and the criminal investigation component related to the terrorism incident.

CM points have been requested from ABIH; CEUs for this seminar are also being arranged.

Cost for the Seminar is $95. See registration form below. Checks shall be made to the Chesapeake Chapter ASSE
