Practical Grant Writing

Participants are introduced to the essentials of grant writing. This training focuses on practical skill-building, including a brief introduction to the logic model development process. After an overview of the entire process, specific attention is paid to the following key areas:

- analyzing the RFA
- understanding and describing the “what, why and how” of your program
- writing S.M.A.R.T. (specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, time-framed) objectives
- integrating evaluation into the proposed work plan
- preparing the executive summary

Presenter: Carolyn Cumpsty Fowler, PhD, MPH

Dr. Carolyn Cumpsty Fowler is an Assistant Professor and the Evaluation Coordinator at the Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing. She holds a joint appointment at the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health and is core faculty of the Johns Hopkins Center for Injury Research and Policy and the Mid Atlantic Public Health Training Center.

*This covers the cost of breakfast and lunch which are provided.
