The House Of Ruth Maryland, the state's most comprehensive domestic violence service and advocacy organization, is recruiting volunteers for its Donation Center.

Located on Argonne Drive on the Morgan State University campus, the Donation Center is the hub for receiving, sorting, and distributing clothing and other items donated to the House Of Ruth. The Donation Center supplies the agency's Clothes Closet (an inviting "boutique" where clients can select clothing they want and need at no charge) and Ruth's Closet (a resale boutique opened January 2011 by the House Of Ruth, located in Owings Mills at 9131 Reisterstown Road in the Valley Village Shopping Center).

Jen Talbert, the Donation Center Manager, relies exclusively on volunteers to help process donations. This is a great volunteer opportunity for individuals who want to see concrete results from their efforts, enjoy organizing things, and who appreciate a flexible schedule. An added bonus is the camaraderie among volunteers working with Jen in the Donation Center!

If you are interested in getting involved as a volunteer, we want to hear from you! To learn more about volunteering, contact Sarah Jackson at sjackson@hruthmd.org or 443-996-8535. For more information about the House Of Ruth and Ruth's Closet, go to www.hruth.org.

The House Of Ruth Maryland, the state's most comprehensive domestic violence service and advocacy organization, is recruiting volunteers for Ruth's Closet.

Located on Reisterstown Road in Owings Mills, Ruth's Closet is a resale boutique selling new and gently worn women's clothing. Opened in January 2011, Ruth's Closet has already become a hit amongst shoppers and is the place to go for great clothing at even better prices.

Robin Blaustein, the Ruth's Closet store manager, relies exclusively on volunteers to provide support in the store. This is a great volunteer opportunity for someone who enjoys working with people and has a sense for fashion. The store is open Wednesday-Sunday, with openings available on both weekdays and weekends.
