

1014 West 36th Street, Baltimore, MD 21211
phone 410.467.1264 fax 410.467.1064

September thru May

Volunteer Position Description

Title: Club at Collington Square Tutor

(The Club is an after school academic/arts enrichment program for at-risk youth ages 5 - 14 in East Baltimore)

Purpose:

To be a role model for, and develop relationships with, the youth while helping them achieve academic success.

Description of Duties:

Tutor basic math and language skills
Help with homework and art projects

Qualifications/Requirements:

Desire to work with youth; Ability to relate to youth.
Flexibility, Consistency and Reliability, Demonstrate positive attitudes,
Complete application, site visit, background check and interview.

Time Requirements:

1 – 2 hours per week (Monday – Friday between 3:00pm – 6:00pm)

Orientation/Training:

Meet with Volunteer Coordinator and Program Director. Review volunteer handbook.

Benefits:

Opportunity to make a difference in the life of a child.
Learn and grow as an individual.
Fulfill internship and community service requirements.
Letter of recommendation /recognition available upon request.

Location: Collington Commons, 2200 E. Biddle Street, 1st floor, Baltimore, MD 21213

Contact: Mary Buchanan, Volunteer Coordinator, 410-467-1264, mbuchanan@ecsm.org