Private Loan Supplemental Application

This application is for students who want to apply for alternative loans from private lending institutions and have not completed the Federal Financial Aid application process. International students, students classified as special student limited, and students enrolled on a less-than-half-time (six or more credits is considered half-time) are eligible to apply for alternative loans. See lenders' websites for specific eligibility requirements, interest rates, and repayment terms. Submit this form after a private loan has been fully approved through the lender of your choice.
