

Master of Public Health Capstone
AWARD RECIPIENTS
May 2008

Special honors are given to the 10 students listed below for the best overall capstone written projects. These students will receive an MPH capstone award plaque for outstanding achievement.

Kristen Bennett

“A Proposal for Private-Public Collaboration during a Smallpox Outbreak”
Capstone Supervisors: Jackie Agnew & Dan Barnett; Advisor: Jackie Agnew

Christina Chang

“Reducing Maternal Mortality One District at a Time – A District Level Analysis of the Utilization of Skilled Birth Attendants in Four Districts of Bihar”
Capstone Supervisor: Hugh Waters; Advisor: Orin Levine

Heather Kaiser

“Perspectives of Future Physicians on Disaster Medicine and Public Health Preparedness: Challenges of Building a Capable and Sustainable Medical Workforce”
Capstone Supervisor: Dan Barnett; Advisor: Lynn Goldman

Matthew Kelley

“Bringing Uninsured Children into Medicaid and SCHIP: A Comparison of Enrollment and Reenrollment in Two States”
Capstone Supervisor: Lisa Dubay; Advisor: Hugh Waters

Dana Kindermann

“Evaluating the Impact of a Nutrition Education Program in Baltimore City Schools”
Capstone Supervisors: Roni Neff & Anne Palmer; Advisor: Elli Leontsini

Olivia Lindly

“Clarifying the Outcomes of Family Involvement Interventions: An Evaluative Research Proposal”
Capstone Supervisor/Advisor: Anne Riley

Susan Moodie

“Leaded in Idaho”
Capstone Supervisor/Advisor: Ellen Silbergeld

Nadine Shehab

(Recipient of $500 prize)
“Health Assessment and Health Care Access among Internally Displaced Persons in Mississippi Travel Trailer Parks Two Years After the 2005 Gulf Coast Hurricane Season”
Capstone Supervisors: Lynn Lawry & Alan Lyles; Advisor: Alan Lyles

Tori Sutherland

“Cost-effectiveness of Misoprostol and Prenatal Iron Supplementation as Maternal Mortality Interventions in Rural India”
Capstone Supervisor: David Bishai; Advisor: Cynthia Stanton

Katherine Westphal

“The Effectiveness and Sustainability of a Low-cost Water Filter in Removing Pathogens during Long-term Household Use”
Capstone Supervisor/Advisor: Earl Wall