- 4th term – April 20, 2019 (includes April/May/June Insurance)
Method of Payment:

Web Payment: Students should logon to https://sis.jhu.edu to make a payment by credit card or by electronic check using their Johns Hopkins Enterprise Directory Logon ID (JHED LID) and password. Once payment has been made, receipts can be printed for recordkeeping purposes.

Western Union for International Payments

This payment option allows students to pay the university their student account balance in the currency of your choice and provides a simple and secure method for initiating payments electronically. We encourage all international students to choose this cost effective and efficient method of payment to the Johns Hopkins University.

Check Payments: Students who wish to mail a check instead of paying online may print a copy of their statement from the website, https://sis.jhu.edu, and send payment to the following address. Checks should be made payable to JHU.

Johns Hopkins University
Bloomberg School of Public Health
615 N. Wolfe Street, Suite W1101
Baltimore, MD 21205

Refunds: JHU has partnered with BankMobile to deliver your student loan refund electronically. You will soon receive more information from BankMobile about your electronic refund options.

JHU Tuition Remission: Students must bring their Tuition Remission Benefit Application signed by their Supervisor/Department Head to the Student Accounts Office before the payment due date. If the remission does not cover the entire cost of tuition, the student is required to pay the remaining balance. Remission is for part-time studies only.

3rd Party Contract: Students must submit a purchase order or contract from his/her employer permitting the school to bill the company for tuition and any associated fees. If the contract does not cover the entire cost of tuition and fees, a student is required to pay the remaining balance by the payment due date. Students who receive payments directly from their employer are required to pay their tuition in full by the payment due date and then seek reimbursement from their employer.
