

CONGRATULATIONS!

SCOTT ZEGER, PhD

Professor
Department of Biostatistics

VAL CULOTTA, PhD

Professor
Department of Biochemistry
and Molecular Biology

Scott Zeger and Valeria Culotta have each received the inaugural Dean's Award for Distinction in Faculty Mentoring.

This award recognizes a sustained commitment to excellence in fostering the scientific, academic and/or career development success of fellow faculty members in the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health. The award was presented at the annual Appointments & Promotions dinner held on May 4th.
