

COVID-19: Back to Campus (2020-2021) Course

This course is available to all JHSPH members through their JHSPH CITI accounts. Use the following steps to locate and take the course:

Step 1: Click Log in at the CITI website, <https://about.citiprogram.org/en/homepage/>

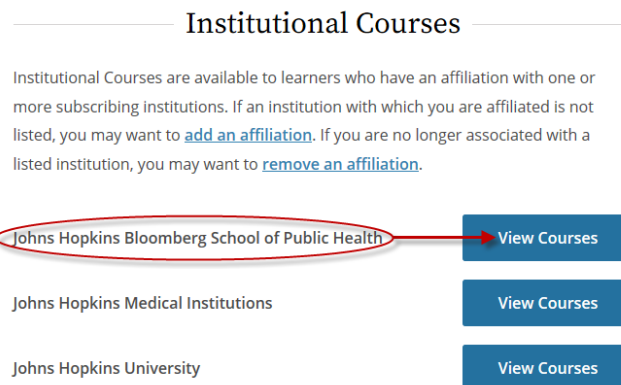

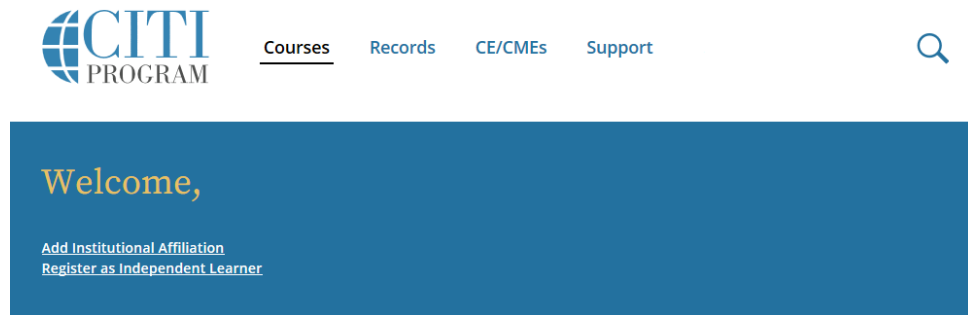

Step 2: Log in with your CITI username and password. If you are unsure of your user credentials, email Miye Schakne, at mschakne@jhu.edu to request that information.

A screenshot of the CITI Program login page. The header features the CITI PROGRAM logo and a language dropdown menu set to English. The main navigation includes a "LOG IN" button (circled in red), "LOG IN THROUGH MY ORGANIZATION", and "REGISTER". Below the navigation are two input fields: "Username" and "Password", each with a "Forgot?" link. A "Log In" button is positioned below the input fields. At the bottom, there is a link to a "getting started guide" or "getting started video" and a "Support Center" link.

Step 3: Many users have multiple affiliations associated with their CITI accounts, so make sure you are on the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health page by clicking View Courses next to Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health.

Step 4: Once on the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health page, scroll down and click on “Add a Course” under Learner Tools for Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health

Step 5: On questions 1, 2, and 3, select answer “Not at this time”. On question 4, select Yes and click “Submit”.

Question 4

COVID-19: Back to Campus (2020-2021) and Remote Contact Tracing

I wish to access the course COVID-19: Back to Campus (2020-2021) and acknowledge that I have read and understood the statement below:

This course's materials were developed or reviewed by medical, research, and environmental health and safety professionals in coordination with the Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC) in an effort to help researchers, students, and administrative staff, manage the risks associated with COVID-19 as they return to campus. Some of these materials may be based on resources and guidance documents produced by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the U.S. Department of Labor's Occupational Health and Safety Administration, and the National Institutes of Health. The materials are presented by the CITI Program for dissemination of information to members of the AAMC as well as other institutions. Please note, it is not possible to include discussion of everything necessary to ensure a healthy and safe working environment in a presentation of this nature. As such, this information must be understood as a tool for addressing workplace hazards but not a comprehensive solution. As researchers learn more about COVID-19, professional recommendations and legal requirements may change, and we urge you to keep apprised of such developments. In addition, individuals must always adhere to state and local regulations as well as institutional policy. Lastly, the information presented here is not intended to provide medical advice. You should seek appropriate medical treatment or call 911 (or applicable emergency service in your area) if it is an emergency.

NOTE: Access to this course will terminate on 1 March 2021.

COVID-19: Back to Campus access includes access to the Remote Contact Tracing course.
