

Speaker Fact Sheet

Chesapeake PDC: April 15th 2021

TOPIC: Human Performance in Construction

SPEAKER: Jerry E. Rivera

THREE LEARNING OBJECTIVES: (at least)

- 1 Participants will be exposed to leadership principles related to human and organizational performance.
2. Participants will be informed of engagement and workforce development techniques.
3. Participants will better understand human errors related to system safety
4. Practical solutions will be discussed and shared.

DESCRIPTION OF PRESENTATION: (min, 2-3 sentences)

The presentation will review human performance engineering principles that are needed to transform organizational safety through engagement. The presentation discusses tried and true methods implemented by safety practitioners in the construction industry that are based on supported science and engineering principles.

SPEAKER TITLE AND EMPLOYER: (as you wish it to be displayed)

Director of Safety for the Washington, D.C. Chapter of the National Electrical Contractors' Association.

SPEAKER BIO: (paragraph)

Jerry E. Rivera is the Director of Safety for the Washington, D.C. Chapter of the National Electrical Contractors' Association. Mr. Rivera holds a Master's of Engineering in Advanced Safety Engineering from the University of Alabama Birmingham. He has over 20 years of experience in the electrical industry and a decorated veteran of the United States Army.

SPEAKER EMAIL:

jerry@wdcneca.org