This outline lays out the contents of Module 3 in a suggested sequence. Estimated time frames for each component are based on completing one module in a half-day format. If you have more time, and/or if you are using fewer components, you may wish to add more time for discussion, particularly if the group is large.

Module 3 Learning Objectives

- Participants will appreciate the different functional (as opposed to professional) roles teams members play.
- Participants will draw from their and their colleagues’ experiences to identify effective and ineffective team dynamics.
- Participants will understand the role of leadership in fostering an organizational climate that empowers and inspires people.

Module Components (in recommended sequence)

You may choose to change the order of these components. For example, the Case Study exercise could be used after the self assessment, or after both the self assessment and the individual leadership development plan segments.
